Lake County Land Reutilization Corporation Receives 2015-2016 Auditor of State Award

A recent financial audit of Lake County Land Reutilization Corporation by the Auditor of State's office has returned a clean audit report. The Land Bank's excellent record keeping has earned it the Auditor of State Award.

"We very much appreciate and indeed are quite proud of Lake County's Land Bank having been recognized by the State of Ohio with the Auditor of State Award. This year's audit was our second State required audit and this achievement is a direct reflection of the effort and attention to detail in our operations. Our goal has been, and will remain, to achieve and maintain a high standard of excellence with respect to the Land Bank's financial strength and record keeping. The Auditor's Award reinforces the success of our efforts to date."
